NATIONAL EMPLOYMENT SERVICE

...through our FULL-TIME Staff

Is part-time help the answer to your staffing problem? Do you periodically (or in a sudden emergency) have need of casual or temporary workers?

If so, your local National Employment Office is geared to help you. Referral of competent, well-qualified workers is assured. NES does the screening, you do the hiring. You save time and money by placing your order with NES.

Should you have need of part-time help in any of the following categories, call your local National Employment Office.

Temporary Office Workers

Stenographers	Typists
PBX Operators	Clerks

Temporary Industrial Help

Car Unloaders	Warehousemen
Packers	General Labourers

Temporary Catering Staff

Waitresses	Bartenders
Kitchen Help

Your local National Employment Office is on the job when you are. Even if your need for part-time help arises suddenly and unexpectedly, you will find that your order receives prompt and courteous attention. Experienced personnel selection officers and inter-office communication by Telex and Teletype ensure quick and satisfactory results.

The National Employment Service, through its 200 offices across the country, fills more than a million job vacancies a year. This means experience and proven success. No other agency has the resources and labour market knowledge to bring job and worker together so satisfactorily.

NES services are confidential and objective. NES services are free and as close as your 'phone.
